

DRUPAL CODE RETREAT

Drupal Code Retreat was a highly effective means of skill improvement and a lot of fun was sponsored by Drupal Association the goal of the event is to grow the Drupal Community and educate people. The event has attracted the attendee from different province to attendee the day event to exchange skills in open source and grow the community. Our goal was to put Soweto on the map for world-class developers – the right people and skills under one roof

Code Retreat Durban did take place on Saturday and Sunday from 08h30 to 17h00 at Ipengeng Community Center in Soweto with 30 attendees.

The event total budget was $ 1600.00. Drupal Association contributed $ 500.00 and $1 100 was raised by community member and donations to cover all the expenses. The budget was used to cover the operation expenses for the event such as securing the venue, meals, electricity, equipment, accommodation and transport

The financial report is as follows:

Saturday	Amount	Sunday	Amount
Transport & Accommodation	$350	Transport and Accommodation	$350
Marketing Material	$100	Marketing Material	$100
3 Meals a day	$100	2 Meals + Closing Dinner	Volunteer
Equipment PA system	$250.00	Equipment PA System	Volunteer
10.Laptop hiring for practical	$350.00	Goodie bags	Volunteer
Refreshment	Volunteer	Refreshment	Volunteer

The event was also supported by local business who volunteered with certain service to make the event a success as indicated on the financial state.

The workshop offers software developers the opportunity for hands-on practice during a full-two session and will give attendees the opportunity to practice the basic principles of software development.

Topic Covered on the event

Create Website

- Create Website and Publish
- At the end of the workshop attendee walk away with a fully functional website.
- Creating a website and then help the community meet their needs whilst achieving business goals.
- Free easy to build professional websites
- Free hosting
- Drupal versions

The Attendee Voice

The Attendee voices

1. We were so impressed. The event team is so patient in training and teaching everything so well.
2. The internet made fun and I got new friends
3. Yes, this was a really useful event thank I can't wait to get started

