Reference

This screenshot shows the search interface on a tablet. At the top, there's a header bar with the text "Drupal 8 is Great!". Below it is a search bar with placeholder text "Search". Underneath the search bar are two buttons: "Search" and "Advanced search". A link "I'm a Block!" is present above the search results. The main content area displays search results for the query "I'm a Block!". Each result card includes a thumbnail image, the title "I'm a Block!", a brief description, and a "View" button.

Test

This screenshot shows the search interface on a tablet during testing. It is identical in layout to the reference screenshot, featuring the "Drupal 8 is Great!" header, a search bar, and an "Advanced search" button. The "I'm a Block!" link is also visible. The search results for "I'm a Block!" are displayed below, showing four items per page.

Diff

This screenshot shows the difference view for the search form on a tablet. It highlights the "Advanced search" button, which is now highlighted in grey, indicating it has been interacted with. The rest of the interface remains the same as the reference and test screenshots.
